Guest Speaker: Lee Thomas

October 24, 2021

In 1969, God gave Lee Thomas a burden for souls that was so great, he was compelled to witness to people on the streets. During 32 years as a pastor, he taught his people to be soul-winners. With a deep desire to see more and more souls saved, he began to cry out to God: the result – Praying Effectively for the Lost! The book was first printed in 2003 and has now been translated into about 40 languages with over 1,000,000 copies in print.

God has now called Lee to the ministry of challenging, encouraging, and teaching His people to pray for the lost. Approximately 150,000 souls go to hell every single day, with intercessory prayer as their only hope. In light of this, everything else we do pales to insignificance. Lee desires to see the church make Charles Spurgeon's plea our motto: "If sinners be damned, at least let them leap to hell over our bodies. If Charles Spurgeon's plea our motto: "If sinners be damned, at least let them leap to hell over our bodies. If hey will perish let them perish with our arms about their knees. Let no one go there unwarned and unprayed for."